Trans-Siberian Orchestra

TRANS-SIBERIAN ORCHESTRA TO DEBUT

"BEETHOVEN'S LAST NIGHT" IN CONCERT

TSO Returns to St. Louis for an Unforgettable Performance

St. Louis, MO - February 15, 2010 - Trans-Siberian Orchestra will return to St. Louis for a non-holiday concert and an once-in-a-lifetime experience this Spring. See and hear TSO tell the story of "Beethoven's Last Night" in its entirety, plus songs from their new album Night Castle in an intimate theatre setting.

TSO will return to St. Louis to perform "Beethoven's Last Night" on Sunday, April 18th at 7:30pm at The Fabulous Fox Theatre. Tickets for this highly-anticipated, intimate performance are on sale NOW! TSO recently performed 2 holiday concerts for 26,000 St. Louis fans in December at Scottrade Center.

TSO will be debuting songs from "Beethoven's Last Night" that have never been performed live. Having just been named one of Billboard's "Top 25 Touring Artists of the Decade" and coming off their massively successful Winter Tour, which played to over 1.2 million fans, TSO is not wasting any time and is gearing back up for the road. Bringing it back to where it all started, TSO is taking this engagement out on a limited 31 city run performing for the first time in years in an intimate theatre setting.
