MY FAIR LADY
Directed by
Bartlett Sher

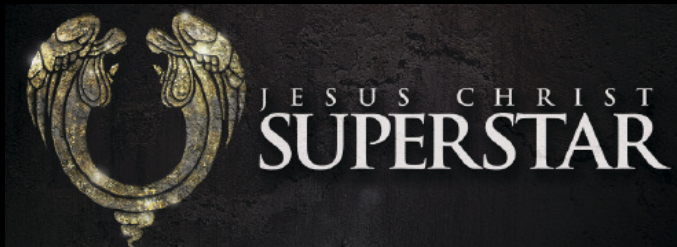

Shereen Ahmedas Eliza Doolittle (on stairs) and Company in The Lincoln Center Theater Production of Lerner & Loewe's MY FAIR LADY

From Lincoln Center Theater that brought you The King & I and South Pacific, comes “a sumptuous new production of the most perfect musical of all time” (Entertainment Weekly), Lerner & Loewe’s MY FAIR LADY. Director Bartlett Sher’s glowing production is “thrilling, glorious and better than it ever was” (New York Times). “Every so often a revival comes along that reminds you how indispensable great theater can be” (NYT).

Boasting such classic songs as “I Could Have Danced All Night,” “The Rain in Spain,” “Wouldn’t It Be Lovely” and “On the Street Where You Live,” MY FAIR LADY tells the story of Eliza Doolittle, a young Cockney flower seller, and Henry Higgins, a linguistics professor who is determined to transform her into his idea of a “proper lady.” But who is really being transformed?

Thank you for your support as we navigate this unprecedented and uncertain time. As this brochure goes to press, Broadway is still closed and National Tours of most musicals are on hiatus as we all anxiously wait for the Covid-19 Coronavirus to abate. We are optimistic that the schedule as outlined in this brochure will take place as planned. And if any of these show tours do get pushed back, we will do everything we can to reschedule them.

The Fabulous Fox is just not as fabulous without our guests, performers and associates coming together to experience the thrill of live entertainment on our stage. Theatre is an integral part of the fabric of our lives and we can't wait until we are all able to come together again and enjoy the magic that only comes from sharing a live performance on the Fabulous Fox stage.

We hope you will join us.
